SIR,

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No.Pol.2256/War, dated the 30th May 1942, and to request that this Residency may kindly be furnished with full particulars of the terms and conditions of service of Mr.A.M.Dyas while employed as an Assistant Superintendent in the Central Industrial Workshop, Bangalore. It is understood that Mr.Dyas was holding a pensionable appointment under the Government of Mysore. It is presumed that he has been granted a lien on his post and that his service in the Ordnance Factories will continue to qualify for pension under the Mysore Government rules.

2. I am to request the favour of an early reply.
